

ELDER SEON F. THOMPSON

Elder Seon Thompson was born and raised in Flint, Michigan, and currently pastors Refuge Temple Church of Flint. He is happily married to his beautiful wife Angela and is blessed with three daughters Amelia, Bianka, and Taylor.

Pastor Thompson is fulfilling the command of our Lord Jesus Christ to go into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature through powerful preaching and teaching inspired by the Holy Spirit.

In 1993 Elder Thompson graduated from Beecher High School. He received his Associate Degree in Marketing, and a Bachelor of Business Administration degree from Baker College. As an accomplished speaker, singer, and musician, Pastor Thompson has shared the platform with renowned gospel singers, Albertina Walker, Karen Clark-Sheard, Kiki Sheard, Kim Burrell, Deitrick Haddon, Bishop Paul Morton, Bishop Vashti McKenzie, Pastor Jackie McCullough, Dr. Bobby Jones, Pastor Beverly Crawford, Bishop William L. Bonner, Michael Fletcher and the Michael Fletcher Chorale, Rizen, and a host of others. With a deep passion for God's presence and a divine insight of God's word, Pastor Thompson aims to usher people into a place of revelation, healing, and recovery.

Elder Thompson began singing for the Lord at the age of three, and upon reaching the age of fourteen was offered a full music scholarship from a Jackson State University in Jackson, Mississippi — but he chose to stay in Flint and do the Will of the Lord. In 1992, he was baptized in the Name of Jesus Christ, and in 1993 accepted his calling into the ministry. Elder Thompson is a former ordained Elder with the International Churches of Our Lord Jesus Christ.

He is the founder of Seon Thompson Ministries (STM), Just Wait Recordings, and Cadential Music Publishing. Elder Thompson is a revivalist throughout the United States, baptizing souls in Jesus Name wherever he goes. He has received a mandate from the Lord to be a 'Change Agent', causing those who come in contact with him to experience the anointing of God through Praise, Worship, and the unadulterated, yoke destroying WORD OF GOD.
